

THE TURN

LEAVING WHAT WAS. CHANGING DIRECTION. BECOMING HER.

EVELYN RAI

VOCAL STYLIST • AUTHOR • TRANSFORMATIONAL SPEAKER

Evelyn Rai, affectionately known as “The Compassionate Sage,” is a nationally recognized recording artist, author, community advocate, and transformational speaker whose ministry lives at the intersection of faith, identity, healing, and purpose.

A gifted vocal stylist blending Gospel, Jazz, R&B, and Neo-Soul, Evelyn has shared stages with Michael Bublé and CeCe Winans and performed with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. Yet beyond her musical accomplishments, her deepest calling is to create sacred spaces where women can confront what has wounded them, reclaim their God-given identity, and courageously become who they were created to be.

Drawing from her own journey through grief, loss, reinvention, and restoration, Evelyn ministers with vulnerability, wisdom, and hope. She is the author of From Grief to Grace and the visionary behind Sacred Maps, a community-centered healing initiative addressing collective trauma through faith, belonging, courageous dialogue, and restored identity. She is also a co-founder of Deconstructing Race, a platform dedicated to examining racial conditioning and advancing spiritual and cultural healing.

On November 19, 2026, Evelyn will launch Bonnet Chronicles — a bold new women's platform creating intimate, honest, and restorative conversations around the experiences women often carry behind closed doors and beneath the bonnet.

Through music, storytelling, teaching, and exhortation, Evelyn reminds women that what they have endured does not have the authority to define them. They can leave what no longer serves them, turn toward truth, and become all that Yahuah created them to be.

“
WHAT YOU HAVE ENDURED
DOES NOT HAVE THE AUTHORITY to define you.”

LEAVE. TURN. BECOME.
